

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NEUTRON ENTERPRISES, INC. CHANGES NAME TO STOCK-TRAK GROUP, INC.

MONTREAL, QC., Jan. 25, 2008 – Neutron Enterprises, the leading global provider of web-based stock market simulations catering to the academic, corporate and consumer markets, has changed its name to Stock-Trak Group, Inc. (OTCBB: STKG). The company's stock ticker symbol has also changed from NTRN to STKG.

"Our new name better reflects our growing product line of world-class stock market simulation and training software, and positions us for growth into new markets in North America and around the World," says Rory Olson, Chairman and CEO.

About Stock-Trak Group, Inc.

Stock-Trak Group, Inc, in existence since 1990, is a leading global provider of web-based stock market simulation and training products. Stock-Trak Group has three office locations in Montreal, Quebec; Mississauga, Ontario and Atlanta, Georgia and is divided into two distinct yet synergistic business units. Through its wholly owned subsidiary, Stock-Trak, Stock-Trak Group targets the academic and financial services markets with proprietary stock market simulation and training tools. Wall Street Survivor, part of Stock-Trak Group's consumer division, targets online investing, trading and game enthusiasts with a market leading web 2.0 investment-oriented educational simulation and contest web site while replicating the real world stock market experience without the risk. Our media division is a full service marketing firm that operates an advertising based network of outdoor multimedia L.E.D. display screens.

For more information about Stock-Trak Group, Inc., visit the company's web site at www.StockTrak.com.

###

Contact:

Rory Olson at 1-514-871-2222

Web site: <http://www.StockTrak.com>